www.dixierounddance.org

WHO: Dixie Round Dance Council (DRDC) is a round dance organization for Phase III-VI dancers. Members join from all over the United States as well as Canada and overseas.

WHAT: DRDC members meet for dance weekends which provide opportunities to dance, learn and socialize. Friday and Saturday evenings are programmed Phase III-VI dances with an emphasis on Phases IV-V. Saturday includes early rounds with only Phase V-VI dances, truly something for everyone. The Friday evening and Saturday morning and afternoon teaches consist of an "easy level" Phase IV, a "high level" Phase V-VI, an "intermediate level" Phase V and/or a golden oldie. Local, national and international teachers/cuers provide their expertise.

Membership includes a monthly newsletter (except for a combined July/August issue) with sections for teachers' reports listing their latest club and festival teaches and new choreography, sections which show the most popular dances in DRDC, Roundalab and ICBDA, several education articles, an extensive list of coming events with contact information, and flyers to register for dance events.

WHEN: The dance weekend schedule for 2015 has three weekends planned. The first is January 30-31. The second and third weekends are scheduled for May 15-16 and September 11-12 to precede Accent On Rounds in Fontana, NC.

WHERE: Dance weekends are held in the Southeast, currently in Fultondale (Birmingham), AL in January, East Ridge (Chattanooga), TN in May and a location to be determined in September.
